We received reports from ARROW the flying medical searching team that AMI JAPAN supports

The third winter from the earthquake we are in Suzu.

Suzu city was hit by intensity 6 lower earthquake in June 2022, and intensity 6 upper earthquake in May 2023. In the midst of reconstruction, an unprecedented major earthquake happened on January 1st 2024.

Further, in September the same year, there were disaster from record braking rain.

Though 'being smacked in the face when trying to get up' and under difficult conditions, we will keep staying close to the people of Suzu city and keep supporting them in rebuilding and re constructing.

Support on rebuilding lives to get back to everyday life

We will support victims according to each one's needs in rebuilding their lives by fixing the houses and furniture, providing necessary information to ones that need tidying up after the earthquake, and connecting them with supporting cooperations, etc.

When any support can be done, ' We do anything'

ARROWS The flying medical searching team

Assessing the support needed in disaster-stricken areas and support through search and rescue, medical care, supplies, and shelter management—standing with victims all the way through recovery and reconstruction phases working together for a brighter tomorrow.
